

Fig. 8

Diagram illustrating a segmented structure, likely a spine or tail, composed of overlapping, rectangular segments. A curved line (10) connects a small rectangular component (100) to the structure. A bracket (18) indicates a section of the structure, and a specific segment is labeled 93. The entire structure is labeled 5.